VOLUME XLII

To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose
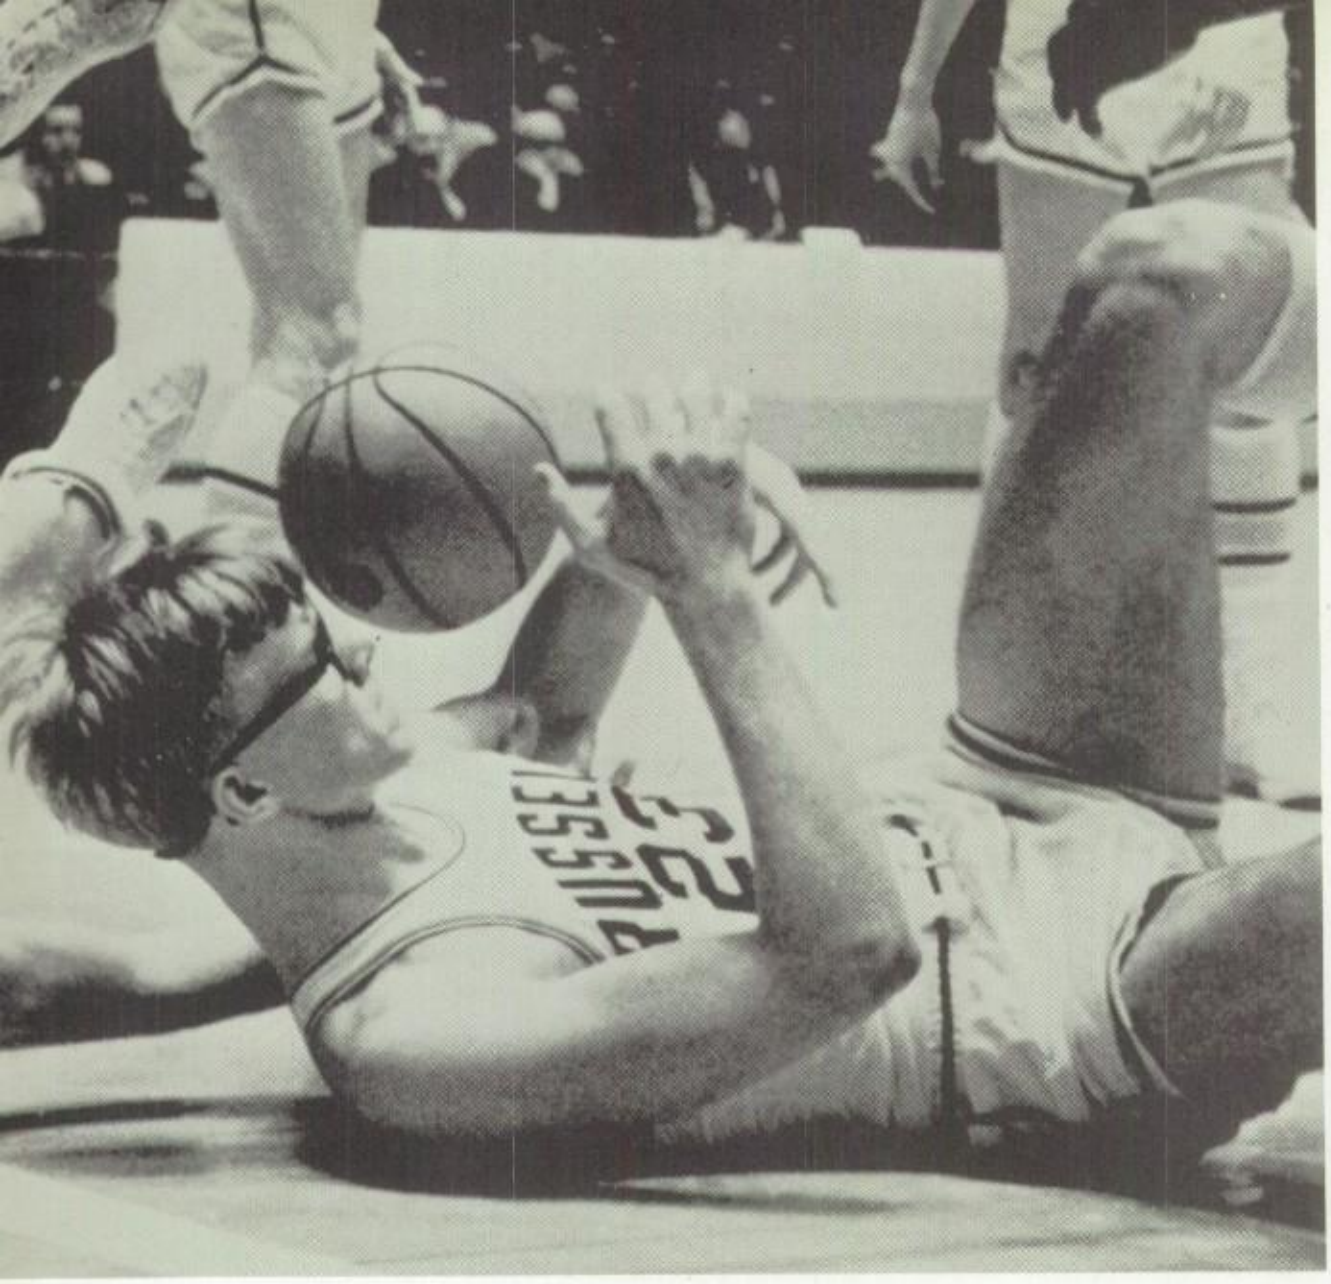
Under the heaven:



Tom Roberts, our eagle-eye center, gets a good look at the ball after colliding with Earlington's Justin Sharp in the State Tournament. Hey, Tom, was it a Spaulding?

IN '67 THERE CAME A TIME TO BEA

Big Tom seems always to be where the action is. Here, in the big game with Ashland, he towers above the entire Russell team that is going for the rebound. Along with Roberts is Vanover, Radcliff, and Helton. The determination of our heroes in getting the rebounds played an important part in the outcome of the game and of the season. By the way, ask No. 30 in white who won this one.

The expressions on the faces speak for themselves—a victory over Ashland!!!!!!!

ASHLAND AND GO TO STATE

Every student put his heart into preparing for the State Tournament, and our Devils didn't let us down.

Streamers adorned the "Bus of Champions" that stood ready to carry our Red Devils and cheerleaders to Louisville for the State Tournament.

TWO COACHES LEAVE FOR LOUISVILLE

Coach Meredith, followed by our colorful cheerleaders, proudly accepts the congratulations of the many well-wishers who lined Victory Lane after the send-off rally.

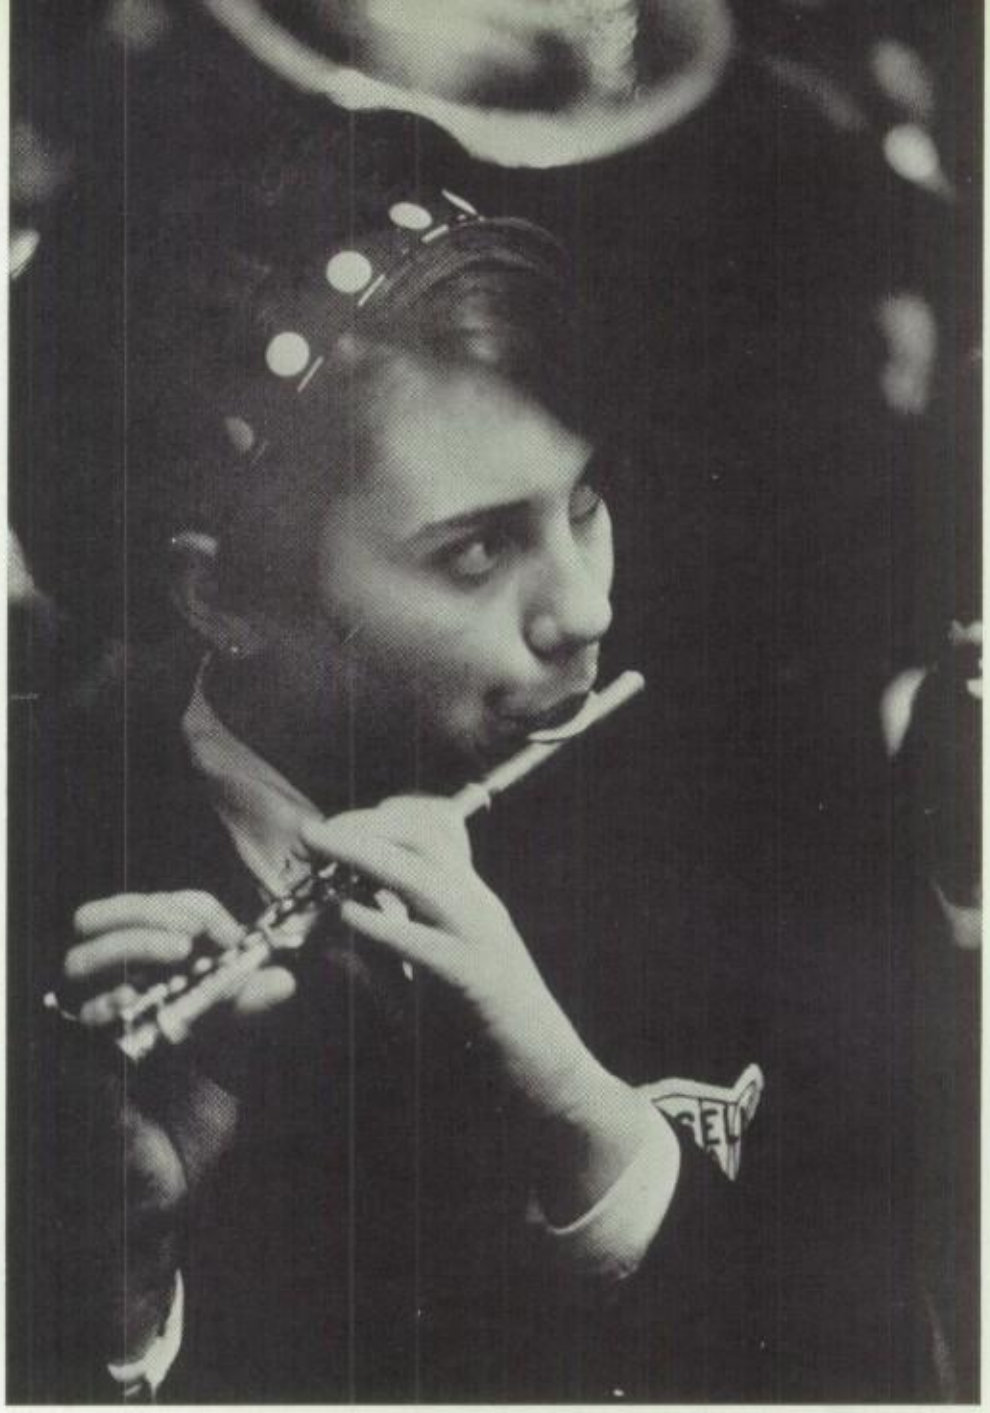
Candy Blanton and Don Hennig marvel at the '66 yearbook. We wonder if Don always dresses like that for yearbook parties.

PARTIES AND DANCES PROVIDE TIME FOR FUN

there was decorating for Homecoming.

There were the Downbeats and ...

A TIME FOR THE HERALDED RED DEVIL POLKA DOTS.



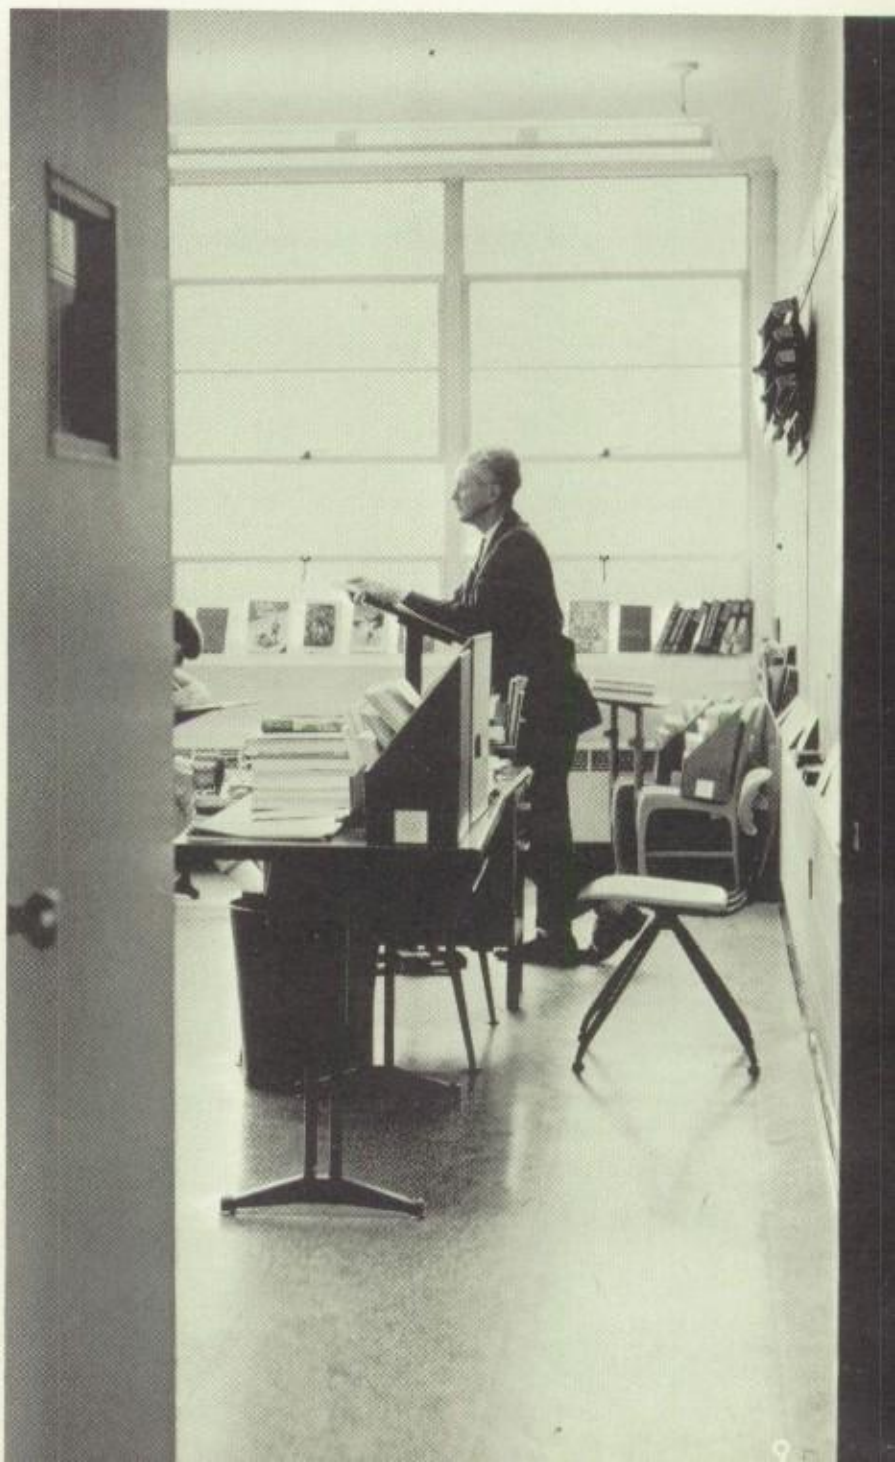
Polka dots were the Red Devil fancy and good luck charm. Pep band member, Madlyn Waddell, shows her dots while rousing the team during the State Tournament. The fad was taken up by our ballplayers as Tom Roberts and Steve Radcliff, our two regional all-tournament team members, put on their polka dots for added luck against Earlington.

Brenda Worthington exhibits what every good typist must have—concentration.

ALAS, A TIME FOR SCHOOL . . .

A typical student pose, and . . .

A typical teacher pose.



Seniors take time out to display rings and work for a great senior trip.

AND TIMES THAT ALL

The Homecoming bonfire helped spirit a Red Devil victory.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the "Southern Mansion" built by the Junior Class in our student union for this year's prom.

SENIORS WILL CHERISH FOREVER.

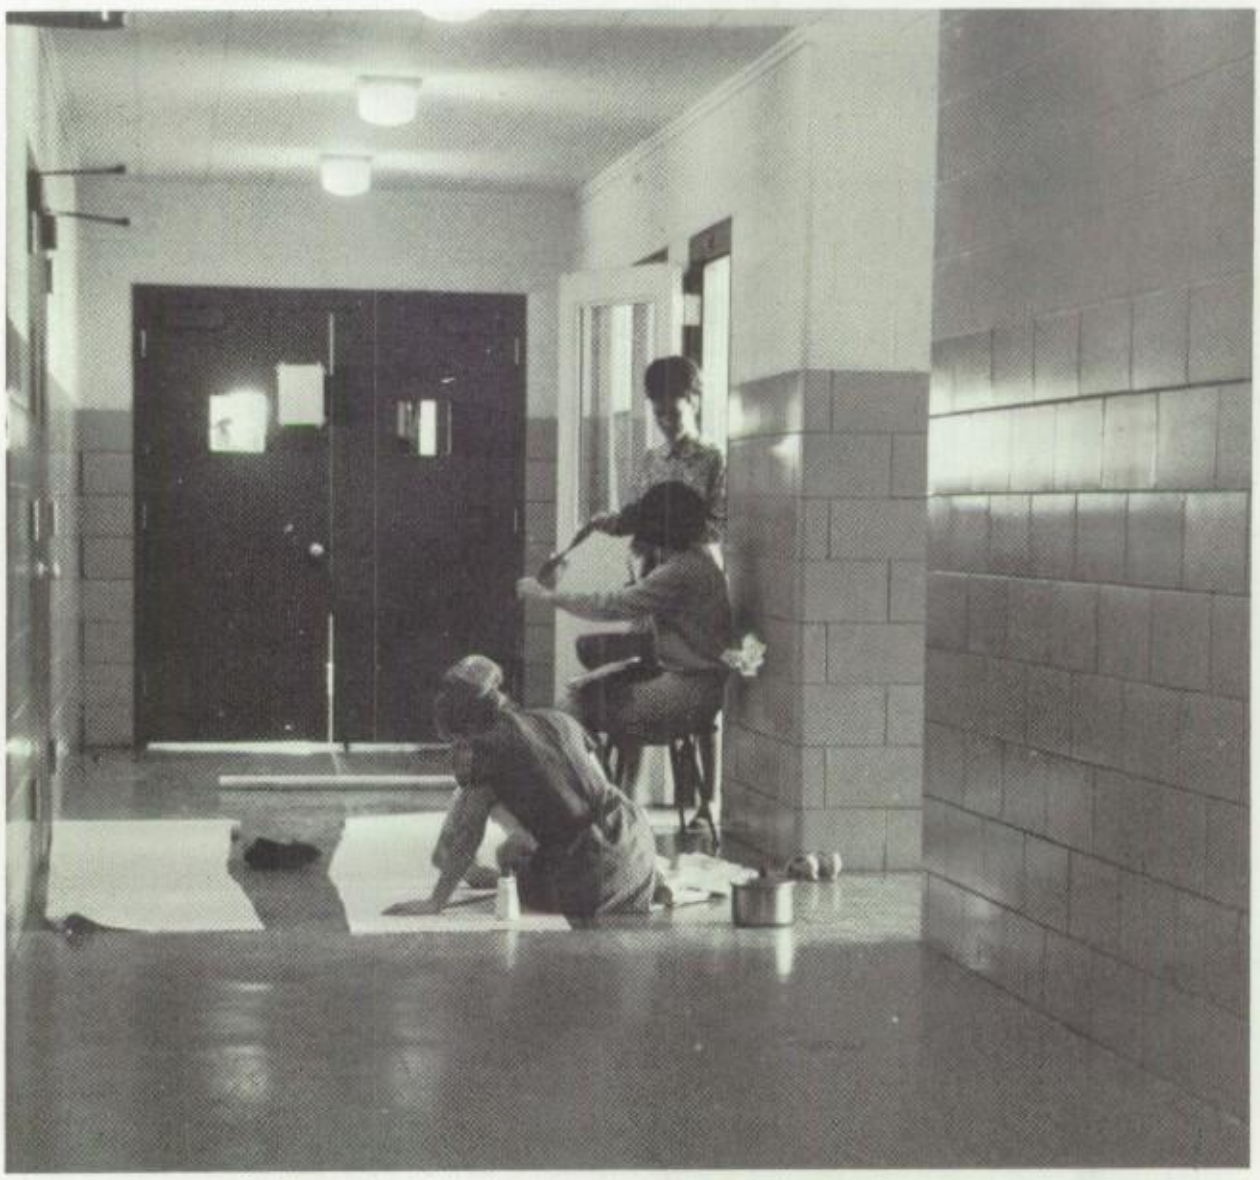
Bernie Pawlowski was so exhausted on the Senior trip that he needed the aid of Clara Barton in the Wax Museum in Gettysburg.

Greg Bailey says the South WILL rise again.

Judy McNurlin, Paula Tanner, Sue Caldwell, Tyna Nigra, Missi Simpson, and Jim Hunter always obey the rules!!

— A TIME TO OBEY AND MEDITATE . . .

The art students always seek a quiet place to meditate and create—what better place than our hallways.



A TIME

TO REMEMBER THAT WHICH WE HAVE LOVED.

Our School Board—

WORKING 'ROUND THE CLOCK . . .

. . . to make us one of the best school districts in Kentucky. Always striving to give us the foremost in education, these six men continue to render their valued time and talents to our cause. It is indeed a time to appreciate such outstanding leaders and their efforts.

SUPERINTENDENT'S HELPERS GIVE TIMELY HINTS.

These thoughts I leave with you: Be truthful in each thing you do; sacrifice; dispel self-love; consider neighbor with love and smile; be appreciative; respect the truth of the power of God, and He will guide each step you take. Remember character is a victory, not a gift. If you lack it, you have no one to blame but yourself. Be sure you are right, then go ahead; be sure you are wrong before you quit. Don't brood over failures and blame your "bad luck." Nobody can cheat you as badly as you cheat yourself and nobody can defeat you as badly as you defeat yourself. Never again in one's lifetime will the chances of losing be so fearful nor the chances of winning so great as when, with diploma in hand, one begins.

Congratulations, graduates, and may these words serve you well your whole life through.

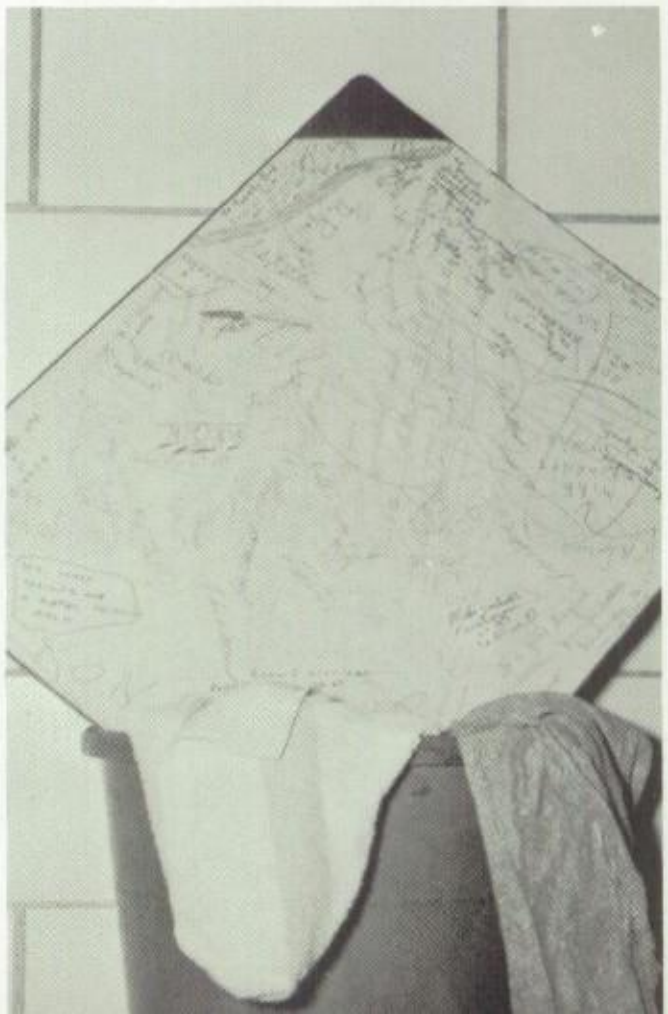
COBWEB CHASERS AND CULINARY CREATORS — OUR UNSUNG HEROES

As Mrs. Bailey cleans the glass doors, Gary Dillow makes it hard for her by pointing out another small speck of dirt.

Alas! The end of the year and cleaning days came along too. Here, Mrs. "O" threw out some old, collected junk.

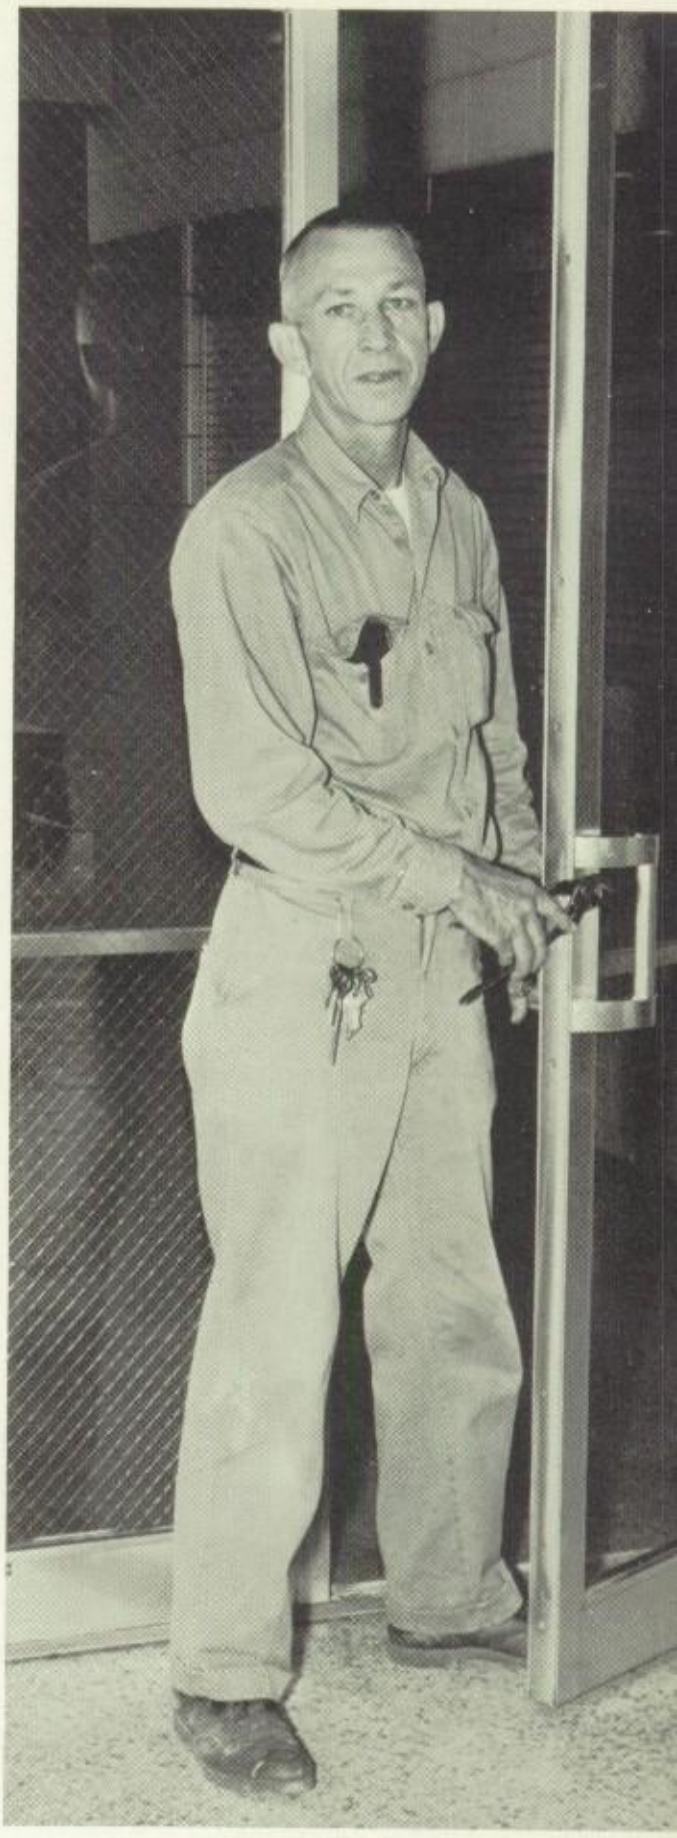


OUR MAINTENANCE STAFF

Although we sometimes take them for granted, we realize that life would be rather difficult at Russell without our loyal maintenance department. Headed by our own Mr. Kounds, they keep us happy by carrying out their duties at the peak of efficiency. They are one of the main reasons why our school retains its newness year after year. We must also pay thanks to our cooks who conjure up so many culinary delights day after day just for the pleasure of the students.

RIGHT: A familiar sight is the dedicated Mr. Kouns, as he is constantly aiding us by fixing up and cleaning our school.

LEFT: Mrs. Bailey summons the courage to attack the dirt in our school.



BELOW: Mr. Smith takes time out from his daily grind to catch up on world affairs, Snuffy Smith, and Beetle Bailey.

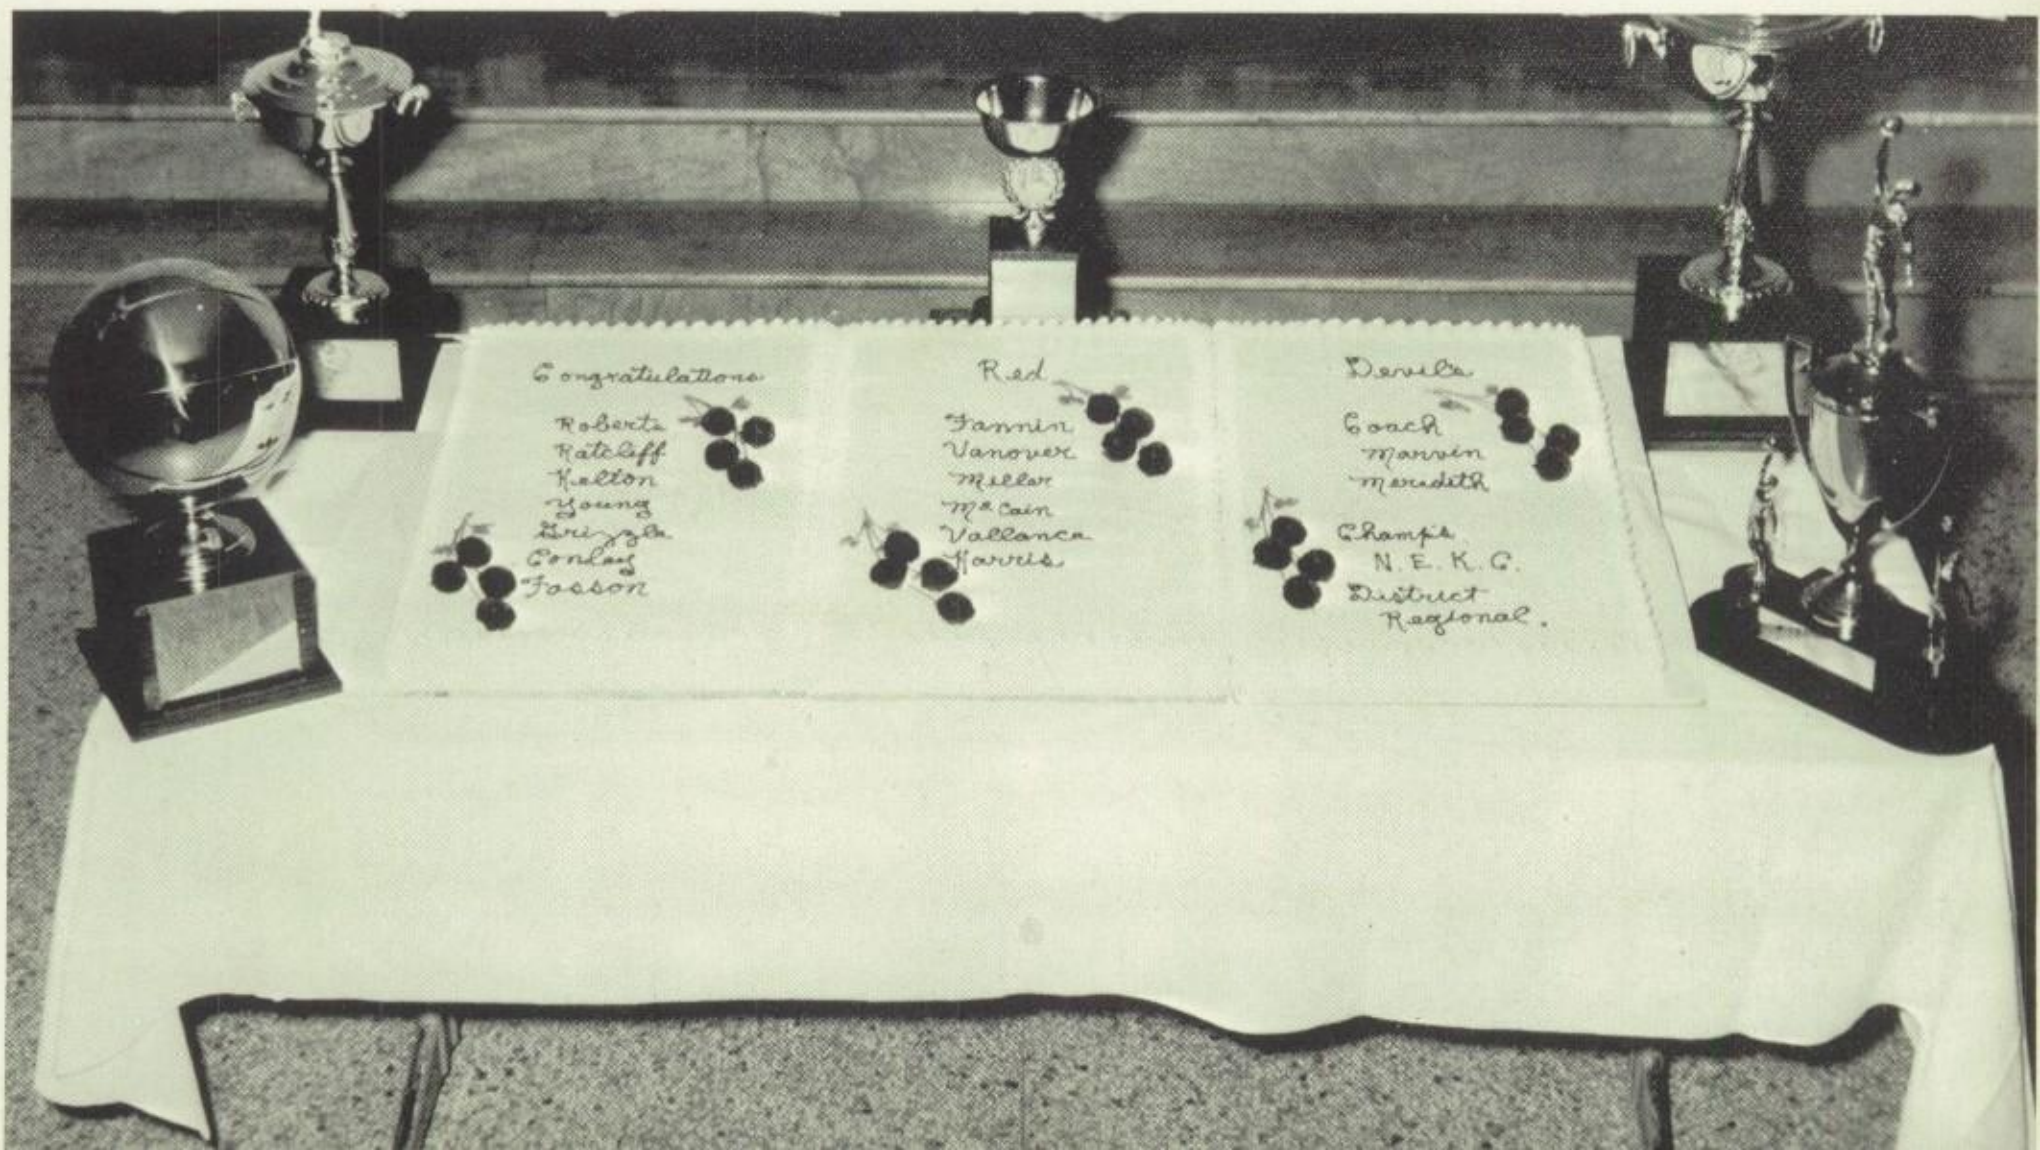
US A THRILLING SEASON

The grand finale of the most thrilling season ever.



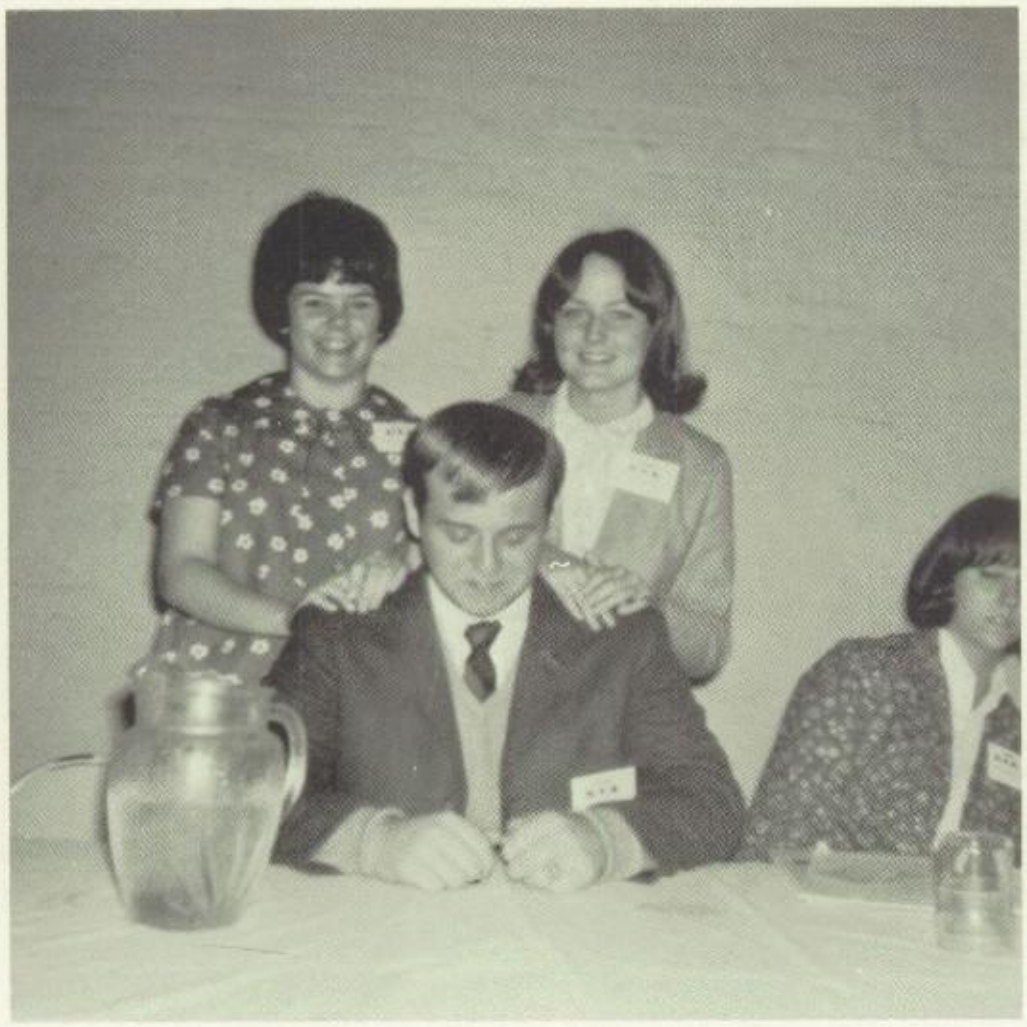
Danny King, to the astonishment of Linda Snedegar, poses in an unusual way at one of the many dances held at Russell.

Randy Lemaster of the Avengers belts out the refrain of a currently popular song.

. . . DANCES

Costumed performers Melanie Davis and Greg Bailey swing to the music of the Avengers at the Beta Variety Show.

Nancy Perry swings on in spite of the idleness of Jenny Perry and Rick Vaughn.



K.Y.A. delegates Anne Leslie and Jill Wells, give assurance to Paul Queen before his campaign speech.

Penny Ward points out to Steve Preston an artwork which suits her taste.

. . . CONVENTIONS

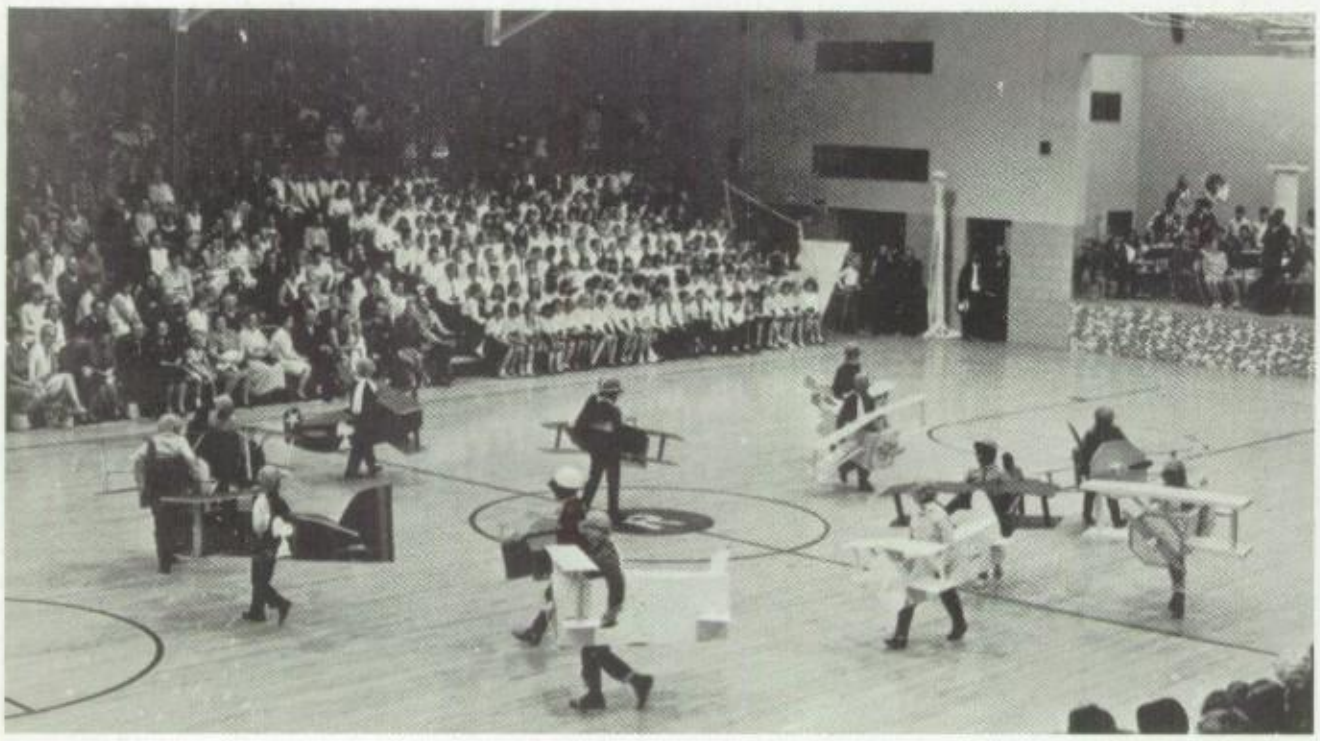
Seniors John Griffith and Paula Tanner seem to be thoroughly enjoying the Beta Sweetheart Dance.

. . . AND ART EXHIBITS

Miss Virgin, during the art exhibit, admires the creative pictures of our talented art students.

The scene of weary pilgrims pausing to give thanks for blessings reinacted an important event in American history.

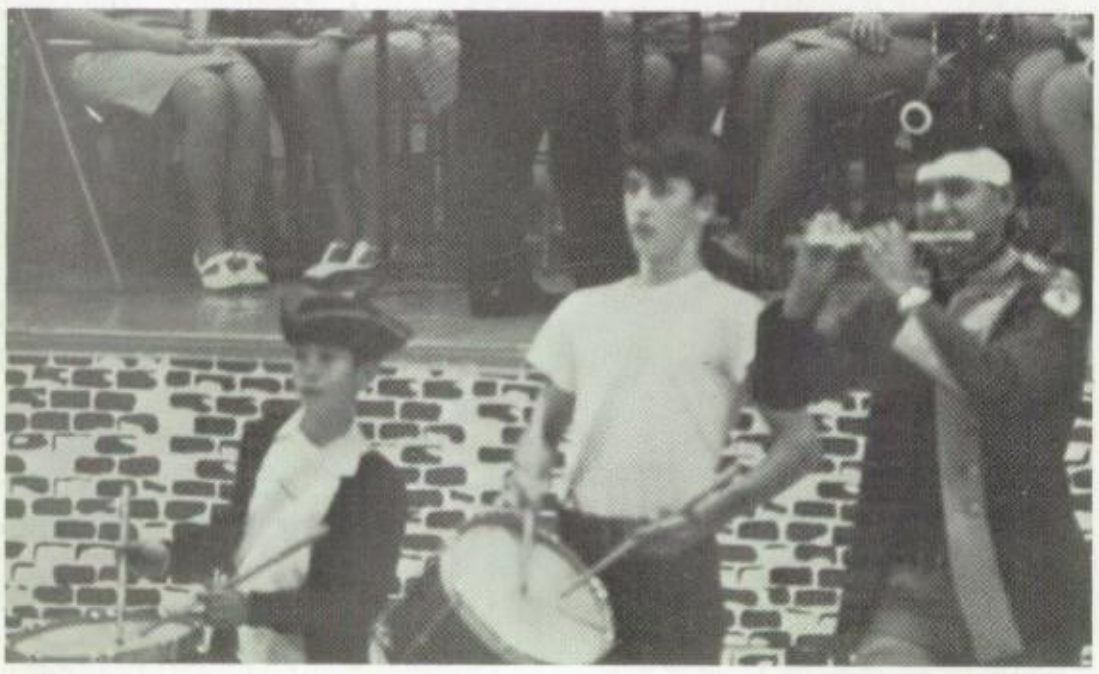
Straight from the Peanuts comic strip, elementary school students staged the famous World War I battle of Snoopy and the Red Baron.



Five high school students, with remarkable authenticity, recreated the memorable raising of the flag at Iwo Jima.

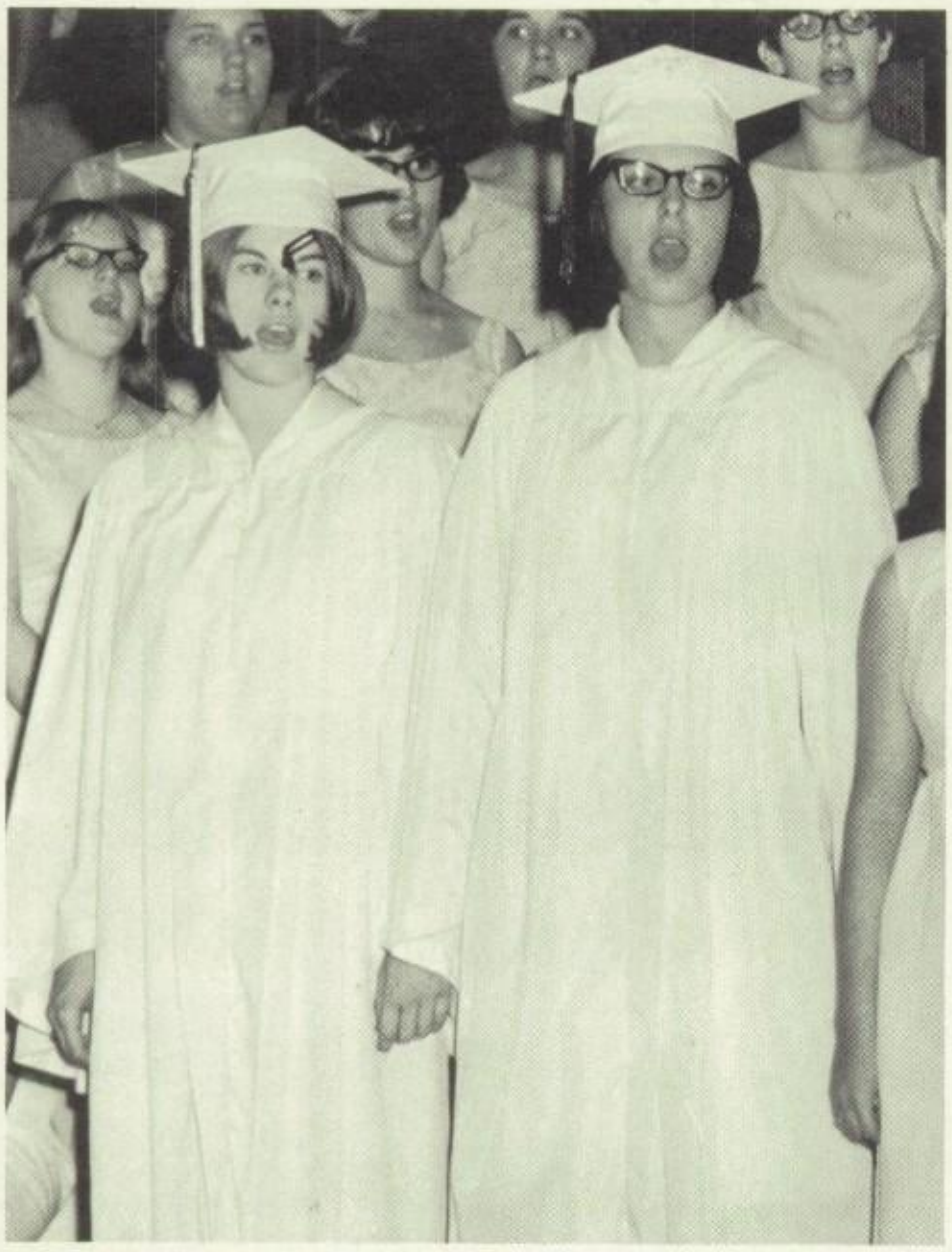
5,000 ATTEND MAY DAY PROGRAM

The patriotic spirit of Ernest Duty, Max Picklesimer, and Ron McDowell comes alive in their rendition of the Spirit of '76.



The real Iwo Jima Memorial stands in .Washington, as witnessed by the seniors on the senior trip.

SUPER SCENES



Sad seniors sing swan song.

Russell's own Kathy Norris beams joyously after having been named Miss Flame of 1967.

Sue Caldwell, yearbook co-editor, wishes Miss Fouts would leave her the keys.

Again. this year, as in 1964, the Devils were invited to the highly acclaimed Recreation Bowl at Mt. Sterling. Quickly, the high hopes of our big maroon team were snuffed out by a stinging score of 27-15 by Bourbon Co. The fearless Russell squad then ventured to Louisa to down them (28-14) to start the regular season's action. In the following week, the Devils evidently found their match as Raceland held them to a deadlock game of 13-13.

The true form of our ruthless gridders took shape during mid-season as they battled for wins over Rowan Co., Wurtland, and Catlettsburg, with one loss coming at the hands of the ever strong Bulldogs from McKell.

Our next opponent, Paintsville, socked a 16-12 loss to R.H.S. after an untiring effort. Simon Kenton, a new grid squad on the Russell schedule, was helplessly over-powered in our homecoming game, by a score of 26-0. The Russell-Ashland game again proved to be a thriller. The first half action favored Russell, as we led with a score of 14-13 but Blazer soon broke away to defeat R.H.S. (33-20). With vengeful power the mighty Devils trounced Boyd Co. by a score of 26-6 to close the season.

COACH MARVIN MEREDIT
CAGERS TO EVE

The Red Devil cage squad, under the superb leadership of Coach Marvin Meredith, is proclaimed both far and wide as one of the best in the Bluegrass State. Titles falling to the powerful Devils were the N.E.K.C. Tournament Championship, the 63rd District Tournament Championship, and the coveted 16th Region Championship. The Devils made an outstanding showing in the Ashland Invitational Tournament and the nationally acclaimed Kentucky State Basketball Tournament. Our boys were also repeat winners of the N.E.K.C. regular season, turning the trick this year with an undefeated record.

Co-captains Mike Fannin (10) and Tom Roberts (23), overseen by Coach Meredith, gave unfaltering guidance to the Red Devil team.

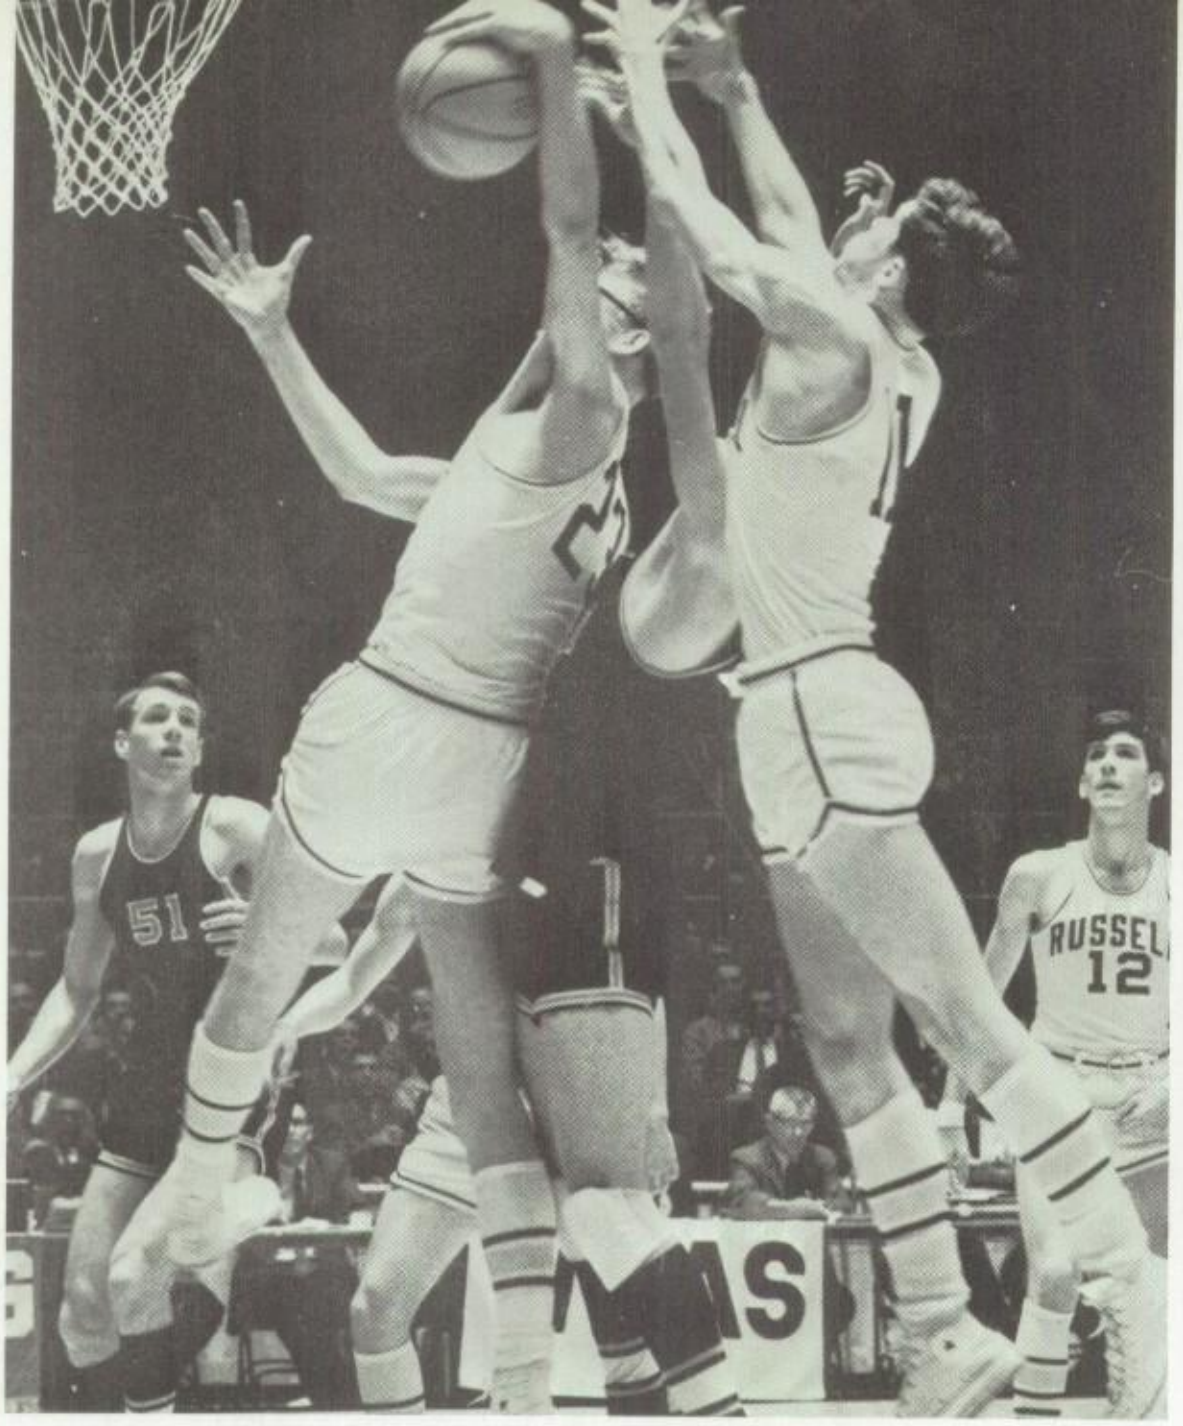
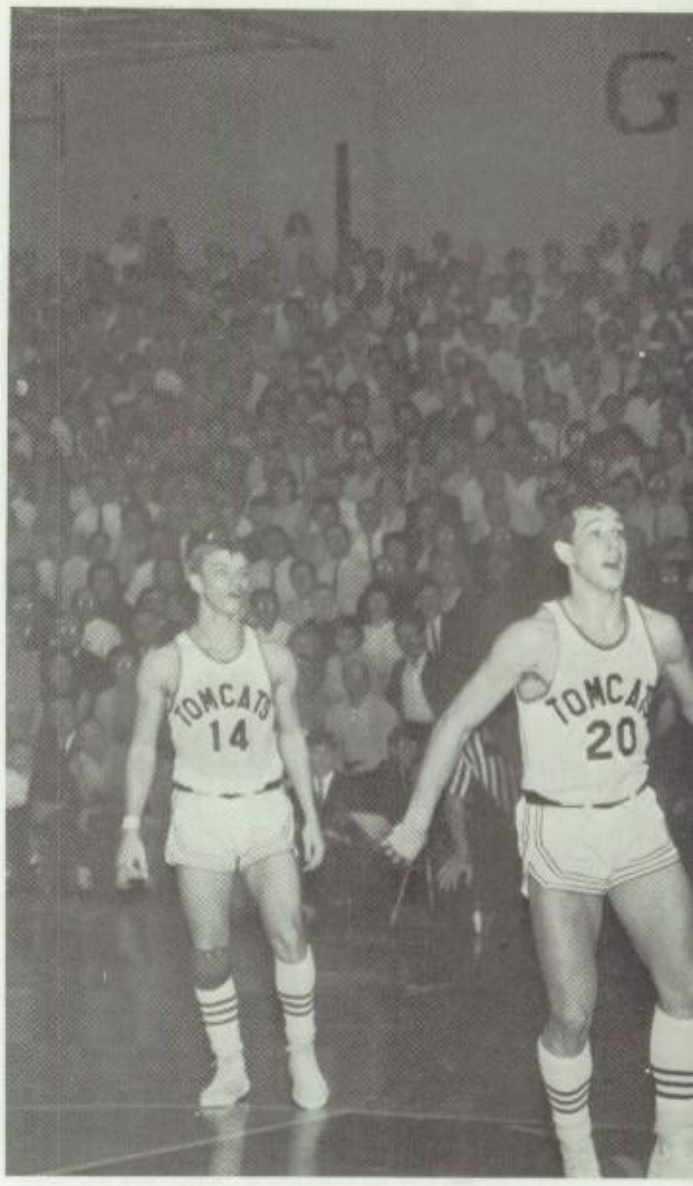
Sharp-shooting Devil Lanny Miller valiantly evades his Rowan County aggressors.

The 1966-67 season, from the very beginning, was destined to become a long-to-be-remembered one. In 5 out of the first 6 games the Devils surpassed the keenly sought after century mark, breaking all previous state records. Even the finest teams must face minor setbacks, and the Red Devils are no exception. The first defeat to our cagers came at the hands of Betsy Layne in the A.I.T. Following the A.I.T., there came a slight lull in the team's pace but toward tournament time the squad again gained steam roller momentum.



Tom Roberts (23) and Tookie Helton (11) are thwarted by an Earlington opponent in the State Tournament.



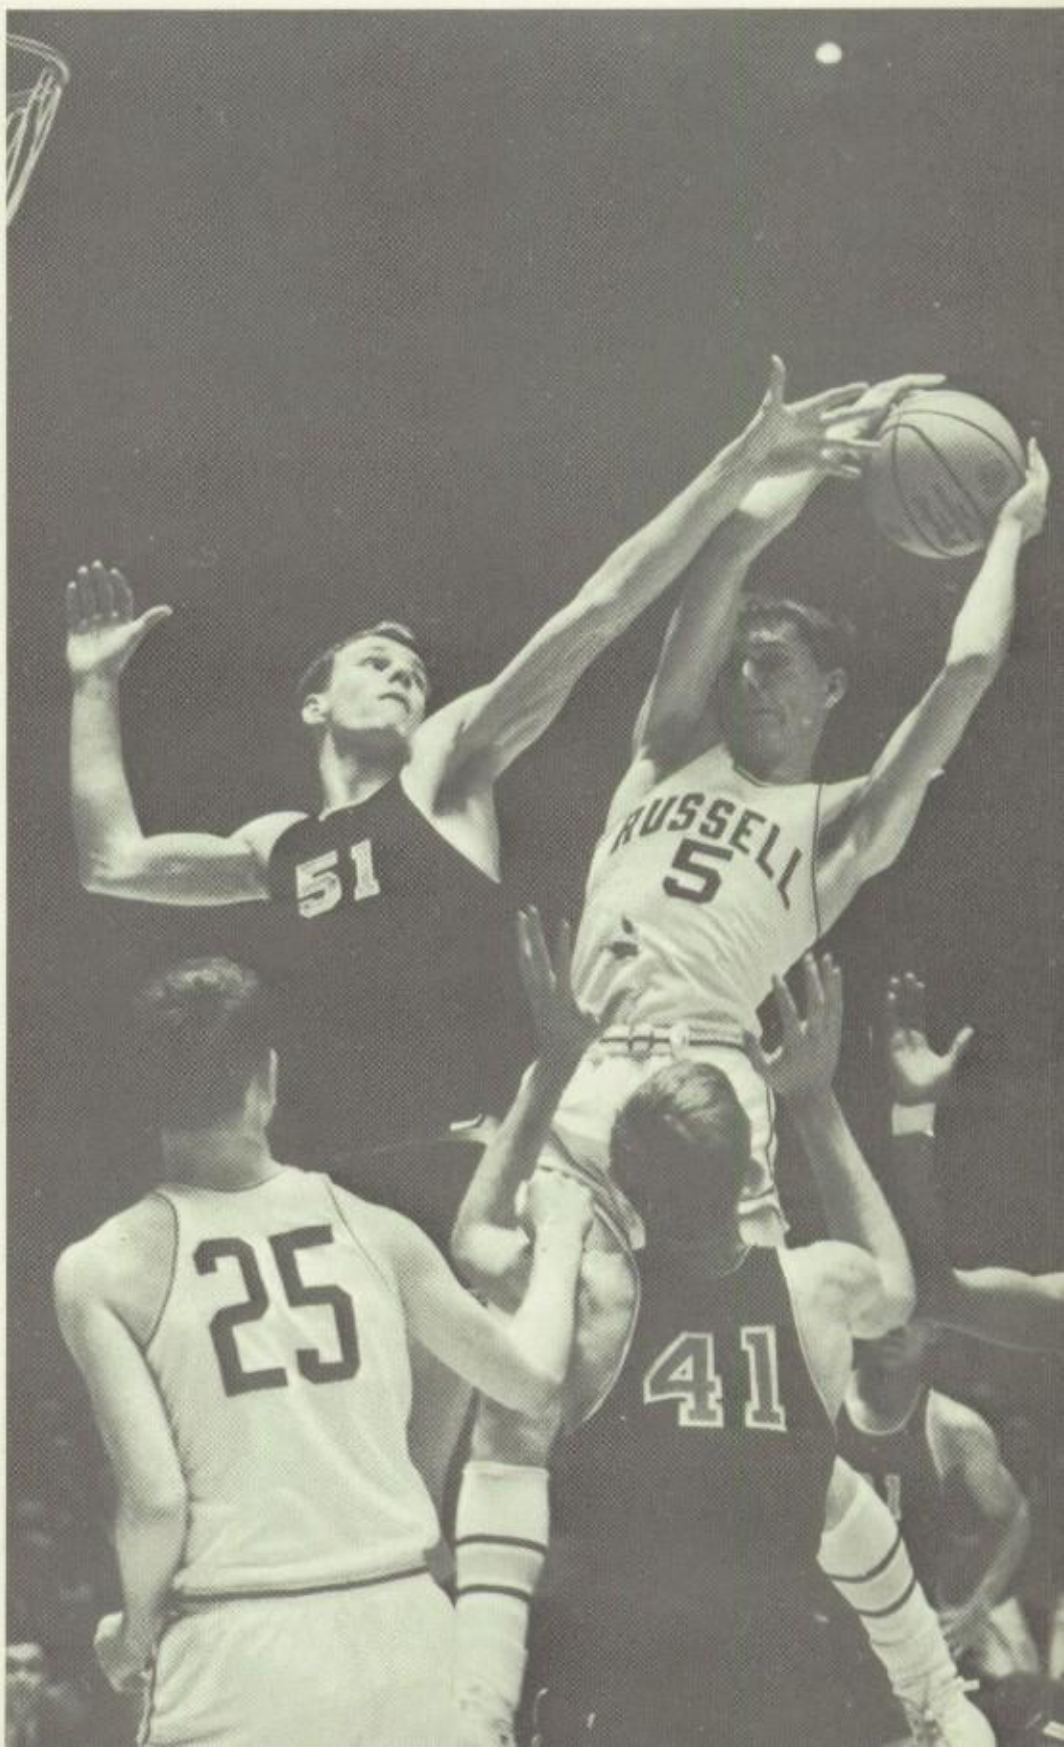
R.H.S. CAPTURE

Steve Radcliff (5), Roger Vanover, Mike Fannin, Tookie Helton, and the entire Tomcat team anxiously wait to see the outcome of Tom "Tree" Roberts' effort.

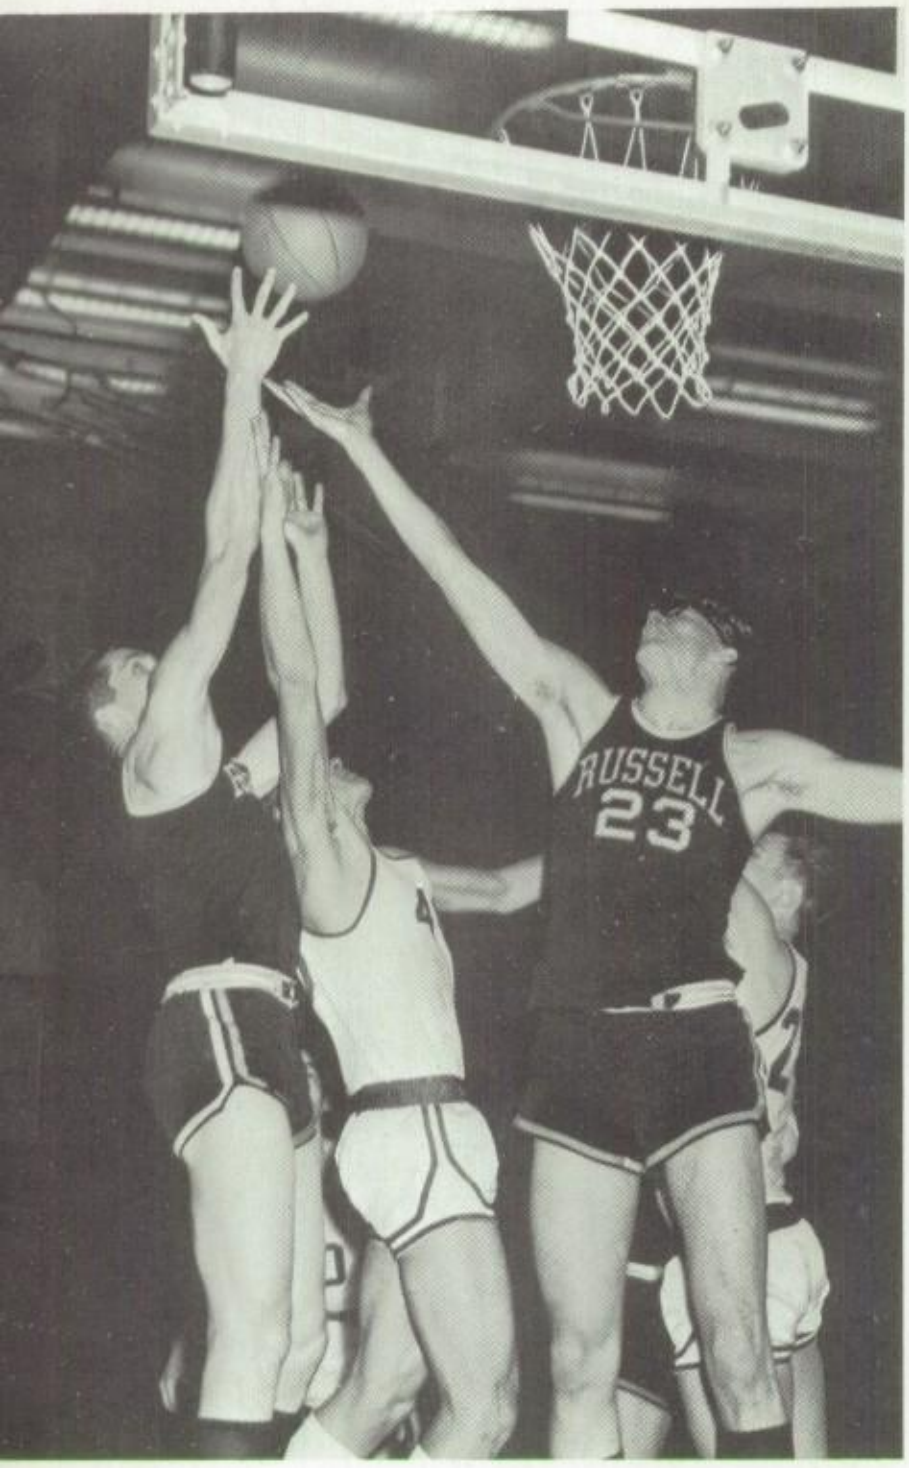
To the open-mouthed bewilderment of the A.H.S. opponents, Steve Radcliff, aided by Roger Vanover, recovers the ball.

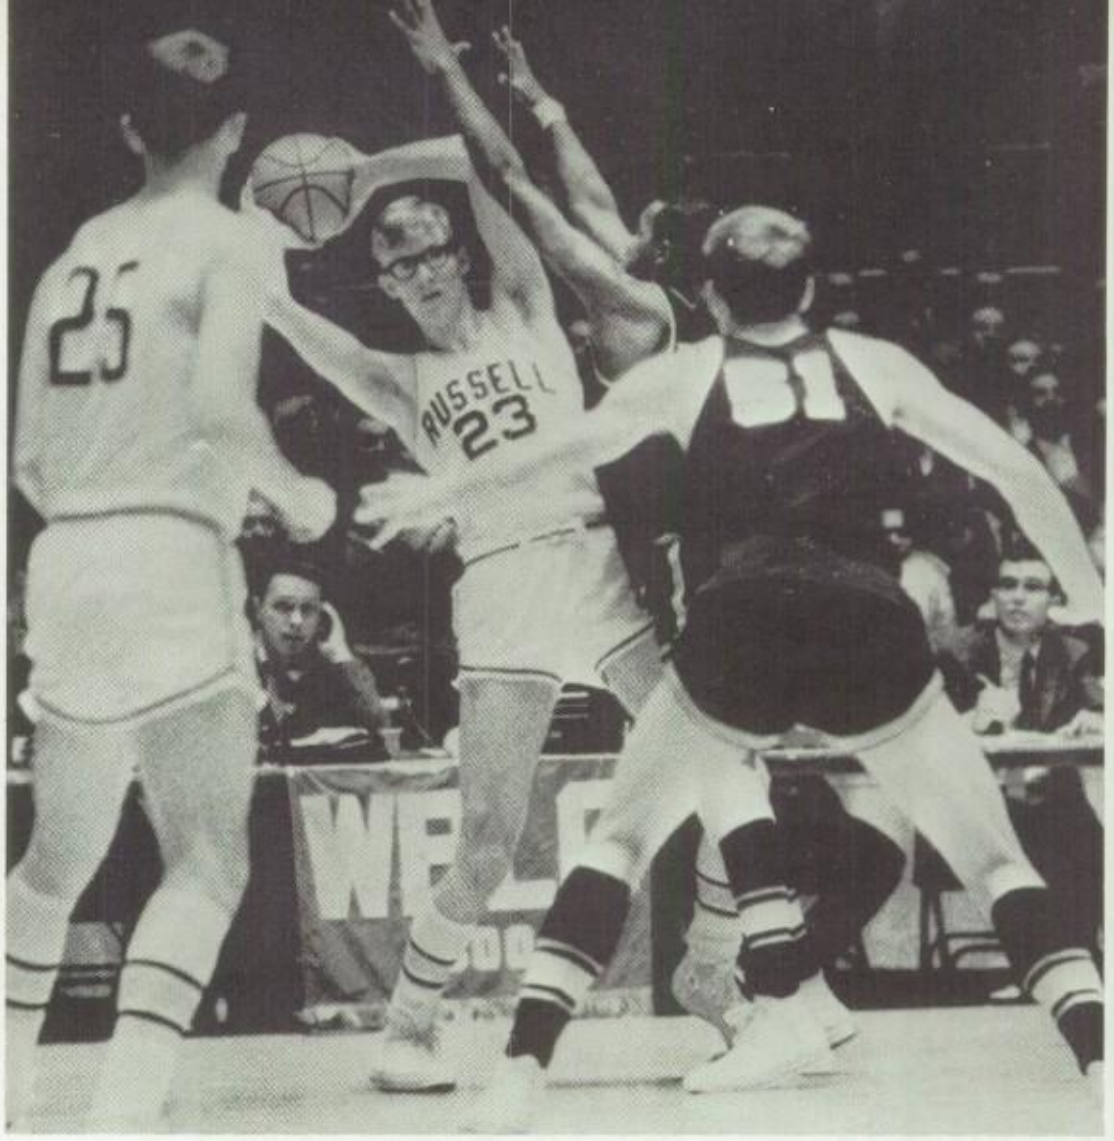
.E.K.C., DISTRICT, & REGION CROWNS

The last few games of the season will not be soon forgotten by area fans. They will remember the romp over McKell for the District crown, the slow-down tactics of Olive Hill, and the run-away game over Ashland in the 16th Region Tourney. Most of all, they will remember the fine Russell showing in the State Tournament in their losing effort to highly rated Earlington. We lost to the eventual State Champs by a bare 4 points. Kentucky, as well as Russell area fans, are proud of the Red Devils and they will always be regarded as the best.



Roger Vanover (25) looks on as Steve Radcliff (5) keeps complete control of the ball in spite of vain attempts by the tough Earlington opposition.





Tom Roberts peers around his aggressor hoping Tookie Helton (25) can get into the open.

Steve Radcliff and Tom (Tree) Roberts, bulwarks of the Devil team, rise above the useless attempts of their opponents.

TWO SENIORS, TWO JUNIORS ARE HONORED AT BASKETBALL BANQUET.

Dr. Guy Cunningham, speaker for the Basketball Guards Banquet, poses with Coach Meredith and the team award winners. Mike Fannin received the Most Assists Trophy and the 110 per cent Award. Steve Radcliff received the Highest Shooting percentage Trophy and the Most Improved Player Trophy. Lanny Miller received the Most Free Throws Trophy, and Tom Roberts received the Most Valuable Player Trophy.

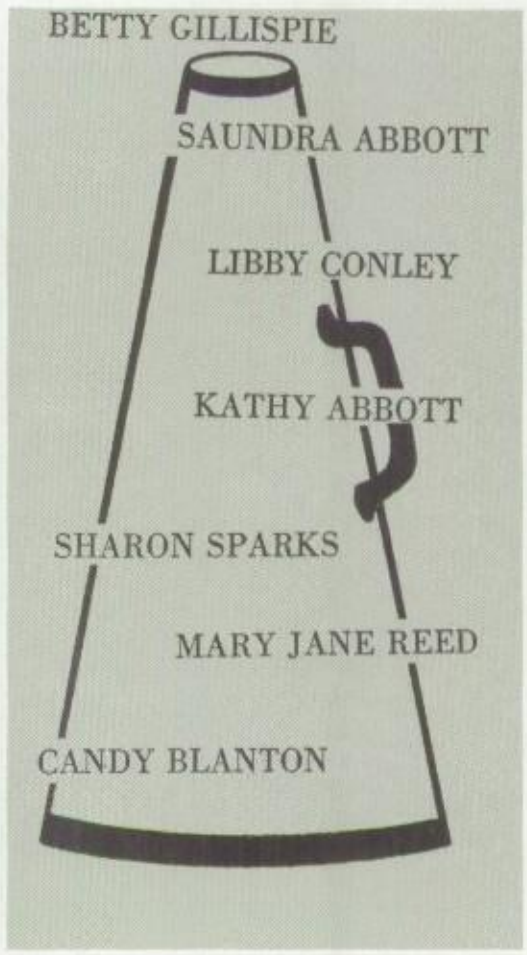
CHEERLEADERS STEP-U

The 1966-67 cheerleading squad, under the guidance of Mrs. Sally Duncan, proved to be the true essence of our mighty Devil spirit. Their boisterous yells, intricate maneuvers, and undying effort urged the Russell teams to victory. Though often unheralded, the cheerleaders practiced hard and cheered with enthusiasm. As a result, they returned to R.H.S. with the 16th Region Cheerleader Trophy and a rating of third in the state. We can be proud of our squad because they are truly the very best.

Russell cheerleaders Kathy Abbott, Libby Conley, Candy Blanton, Mary Jane Reed, and Saundra Abbott jubilantly accept the 16th Region Trophy for the Outstanding Cheerleading Squad.

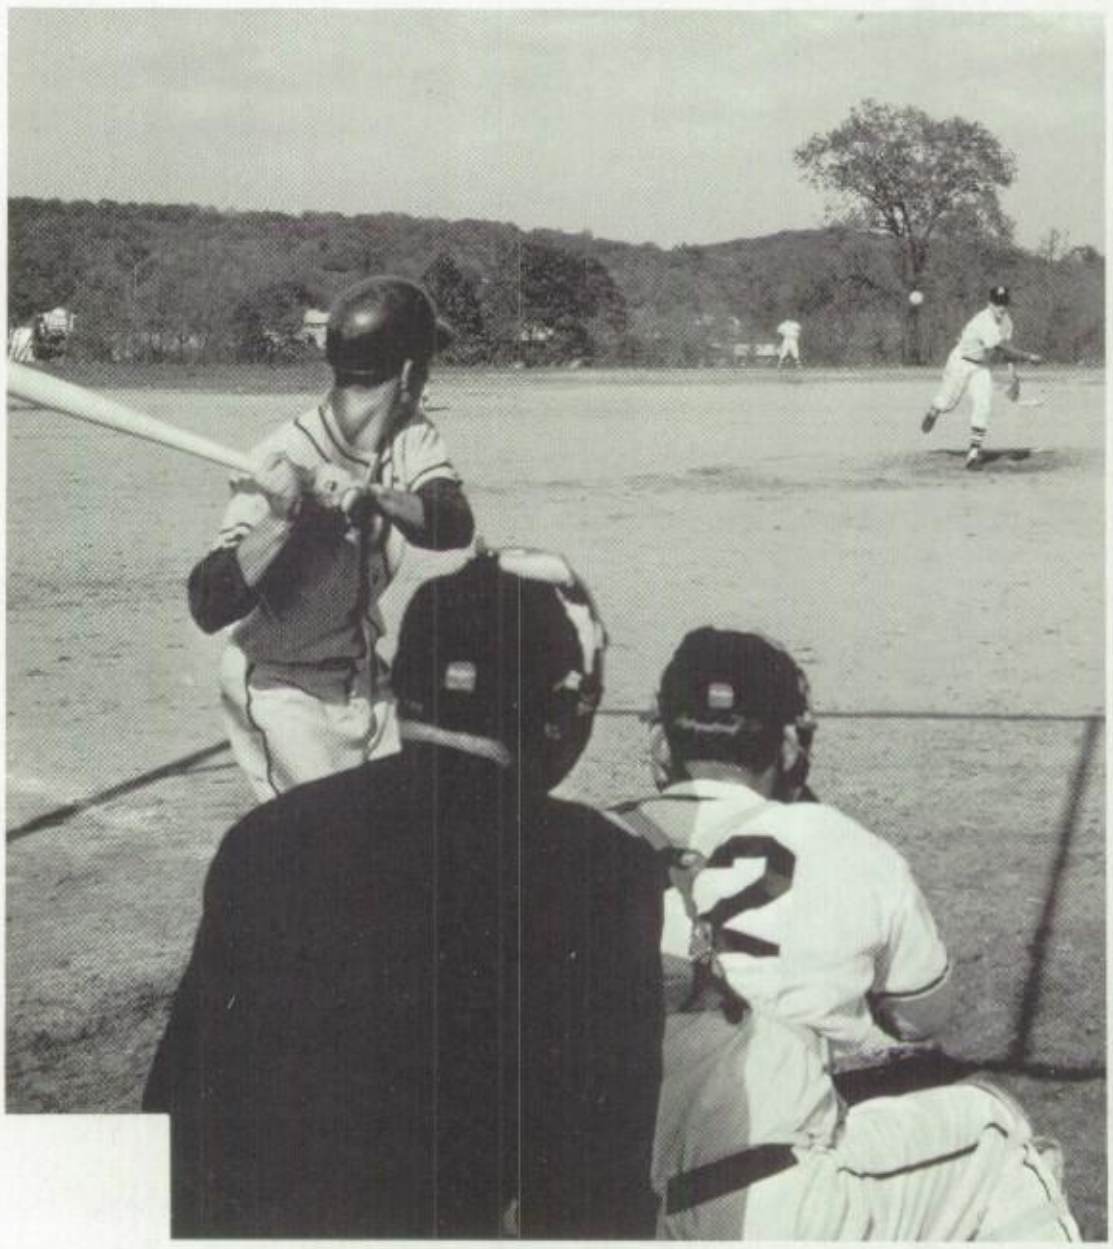
At the Awards Banquet, the Cheerleaders were lauded for their outstanding efforts. Standing with their awards are Mrs. Sally Duncan (sponsor), Mary Jane Reed, Libby Conley, Candy Blanton, Betty Gillispie (captain), Kathy Abbott, Saundra Abbott, and Sharon Sparks.



CHOOL SPIRIT

RUSSEL

Randy Grizzle shows his true form as a Fairview batter awaits the outcome.



Chuck Lowery wields his bat as the umpire calls, "Ball One!"

The 1967 Russell Diamond Squad, always with the gleam of determination in their eyes, constantly strived to conquer their superior opponents.

The Greenup Squad overpowered R.H.S. by a score of 5-1 in the first game of the season. Next, a rash of losses plagued the Russell Nine through mid-season as they approached tournament time.

The season's highlight came when a 4-2 win over Louisa was achieved and thus entitled our maroon squad to move up to the District Tourney. Quickly, our claim to fame faded as we were knocked off by Greenup (9-2) in the tournament opening.

In spite of losses, each of the players showed high spirits and never-failing vigor through the entire season. Russell High School will always appreciate their interest and effort.

The spring of 1967 has proved itself a very memorable one for the Russell Track Team.

The season opened when the thinclads were nosed by Fairland in a quadrangular meet by a mere one-half point. Following this, the Russell team participated in a triangular meet, and it came in a close second to Grayson Prichard. Next, a skillful Boyd Co. team captured first place in the N.E.K.C. meet, leaving our maroon team with the runner-up trophy.

In closing the season, pacesetters Bruce Shaffer and Frank Blevins placed first in the 880-yard run and the 2-mile run respectively, thus enabling both to attend the State Track Meet.

TENNIS — '67

Under a new coach, our tennis team continued its winning tradition this year. Again capturing the regional's doubles, our girls' proved to be the class of the 16th region. Although thwarted again in the state tourney, our girls put up a valiant try that almost brought victory. Thanks go to five graduating seniors for a job well done.

ARIETY TO RUSSELL ACTIVITIES

The Junior Co-Ed-Y, sponsored by Mrs. George Hoflich and Mr. James Shope, is the most active club at Russell. The club worked hard and produced many worth while projects. The most outstanding of their projects were the Cerebral Palsy Christmas Party, Mother-Daughter Banquet, Powder Puff Football Game, and the Teachers' Tea. Their other activities included selling polka dot ties for the State Basketball Tournament, cleaning trophies, leading devotions, co-sponsoring Teen Talks, attending KYA and KUNA, and selling World Service candy. Whenever there was a job that needed to be done, whether large or small, the Junior Co-Ed-Y volunteered to do it. The climax of their hard year of work came when they were awarded a trophy for being the best Y-Club in the Commonwealth.

The F.T.A. Breakfast found teachers very surprised with the identity of their secret admirers.

The Future Teachers of America is a nation wide organization for students who are interested in going into the teaching profession. F.T.A. members this year prepared students for student teaching and sponsored Teachers Appreciation Week. During this week each teacher was given a gift by his "secret pal". To end the week, the F.T.A. members gave a "Teachers' Breakfast" for all the faculty. The F.T.A., this year as in the past, did a fine job of stressing the value of teaching.

August marked the beginning of the band's endless hours of drill in preparation for the busy year that awaited.

The first half-time show was at the Recreation Bowl where they carried away the Outstanding Band Award. The remainder of the football season was marked with many more excellent performances at the games, parades and finally the Ashland Band Festival.

Band activities did not end with the final football game, for the band members then launched into varied music for pep rallies and concerts.

The high point of the year came when the concert band ventured to Morehead and received an "I", the best rating possible, for the third straight year.

On May 15 the "George Washington" was boarded by 79 excited seniors and 5 chaperones filled with great expectations for the forthcoming senior trip. After a long train ride that brought us into Richmond, we met our guide who had two busses ready and waiting for us for the long trip to Jamestown. After a scenic view of the fort and the James River, we traveled to Williamsburg. It was a tired and weary group that watched intently the movie shown in the special theater, and then proceeded through the city on what seemed an endless walk through the historic avenues. Once again we boarded our busses for the long ride to Washington and the beds at the Annapolis Hotel. On the third day, the entire day was spent in Washington on a special sightseeing tour of the historic city. One of the highlights was in the White House where we clamored to see the First Lady presenting an award to Victor Borgia. We stood in awe of the beauty of the Capitol and the Library of Congress, and reverently regarded the meaning of the Iwo Jima Statue and the Arlington Cemetery where we witnessed the changing of the guard. That evening we left the portals of history and took a moonlight cruise down the beautiful Potomac River where everyone had a real swinging time. The next day was spent at Gettysburg, where all were quite impressed with The Lamp Post Inn. Returning to Washington, we carried on the Russell tradition by climbing the Washington Monument. The stars of this venture were Bernie Pawlowski and Melanie Davis, who climbed the monument three times. The last day was spent in packing and touring the various wonders of the Smithsonian Institution. That night we saw Washington by moonlight before having to say goodbye to our wonderful bus drivers—Blackie and Soap Suds. A tired group of seniors returned to the Ashland depot on May 20, but it was a group enriched in the knowledge of history and the many memories that couldn't be left behind in Washington.

MADE, BITTER-SWEET, FROM FRUITS OF LIFE THERE IS A WINE; IT QUENCHES EVERY HUMAN THIRST — WE CALL IT TIME.

— Jean Herrick

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to dance;
A time to mourn, and a time to laugh;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth? I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. He hath made everything beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

ADVERTISERS

We are at the end of the year, and the end of the book. It was a good year, a very good year. But don't stop looking now. The people on the next few pages are the ones that made this record of 1967 possible. These are the friends of Russell High School and the life blood of the Revilonian. Read their ads—patronize their businesses—get to know them.

THE FUTURE is where you'll spend the rest of your life . . .

We hope you are preparing for it as well as you possibly can — for the future needs young people with knowledge, dedication, energy and ambition.

If your career interests are in one of the many fields so important to industrial growth—engineering, sales management, accounting or business administration, for example—we hope, too, that you will keep an eye on Ashland Oil. Our growth already has been outstanding, but we're preparing for even a greater future.

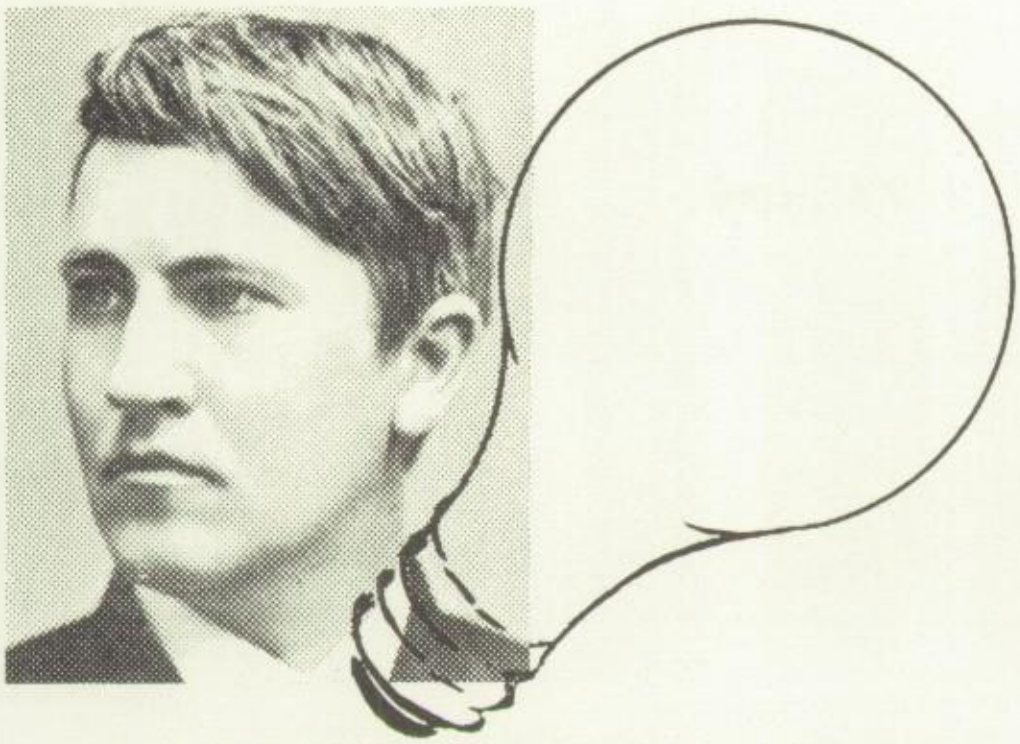
An Equal Opportunity Employer



In 1882 Edison had a great idea.

And it wasn't the electric light.

The whole idea of investor-ownership of electric light and power companies began when Thomas A. Edison and a group of investors financed his first power plant more than 80 years ago.

Since then, investor-owned companies like ours have become an integral part of America's Free Enterprise system. That explains why today we have at our fingertips more electric power than any other country in the world.

And it's this same Free Enterprise system that puts at your fingertips greater opportunity, greater expectation for success than can be hoped for by any other young people in the world.

From the editors:

The year 1966-67 was a fascinating year to be alive. Indeed, many dormant aspects of school life came alive this year. School spirit rallied behind our basketball team that authored the biggest story of the year. New teachers and new classes helped make this year a new experience for all students—from freshmen on up to seniors.

It is our hope that this book will record the events of this year in such a way that it will be cherished by each and every individual. Putting together such a book is quite a task. Many people labored many hours, dedicating themselves to the ideals that make up a good book. Whether we have succeeded or not, we cannot judge at this time. You, the readers of this edition of the Revilonian, will be the sole judges of our labors.

We would like to thank many people who have worked for the staff this year: Carolyn Shafer and Nancy Blankenship, co-associate editors; Carrie Moore, typist; Paul Queen, sports and general handy-man; Martha Hardiman, Paula Tanner, Jennifer Garda, Martha Endler, and Linda Vest, who garnered ads to help relieve expenses of this book; Jenny Perry, senior activities; Penny Ward, circulation director; and Nancy Perry, seniors. Thanks go to the people who gave us photographs, especially the newspapers, Louisville Courier Journal, Lexington Herald, and the Ashland Daily Independent (a special thanks goes to ADI photographer Dick McCall). One more vote of appreciation goes to the teachers and Mr. Firestine for their co-operation when we invaded their offices and classrooms on what seemed a rather haphazard mission. Thank you for not yelling too much, Mr. Firestine. Also a very special thanks goes to Miss Fouts, our sponsor, who worried and fretted through the year, and put up with our antics—remember the car and the keys, Miss Fouts. But most of all, we want to thank you—the people who bought a copy of the Revilonian—for without your subscriptions the book would have been only a fleeting stroke of imagination instead of a reality.

1967 Revilonian

THANK HEAVENS,
IT'S FINISHED!

The Revilonian is a memory book for Russell High School. A years life crammed into a few short pages. The whole story you won't find here, only pieces, but designed to relate a thought, a remembrance.

The book is to be skimmed through now, the pictures are to be enjoyed, laughed at, the time for remembering is not 1967, for the past is too linked to the present.

But when the mist of years haze these days, the Revilonian will serve as a torch to cut through, to bring back a smile, a tear, and always a memory...

To Debbie,
a really great gal.
Always be good and stay
just the way you are.
Never forget all the fun
we've always had. Always
